It has not often happened in this State that a Covernor needed such a certificate of good cha-auter in order to please his own party But it seems that the ardent admirers of Governor Fairfield an highly pleased that this certificate much to the pleasure of our citizens during the has gone out among their political friends and winter by his musical talent, and to the accomexpect much advantage to him on account of it plishments of our young people by his school at ernor with a liberal hand. But our neighbor ought to aid the Governor, having received an appointment and a title from him Yellow breeches, shining epauletts, a pair of pistols and a title, sometimes do wonders for a vain man.

I'he liberal passe of our neighbor can hardly be taken as the sopular sentiment in this r gion, since there are more who are disappointed in not getting an office than those that were as fortun ate as the editor of the Democrat Besides, he could not well do less than he has, he being an Aide to the Governor And as his services will not probably be called for in any other mode, he was in a measure bound to help in this emer-

The gicat confidence placed in Gov Fairfield by the Legislature may be best learned by the manner in which the recommendations of his annual message were treated. His party in the Legislature were not disposed to adopt, but repected nearly the whole of them. This-was a severe cut to his political sugacity which can hardly be considered cured by the pretty little certificate of character sent forth by his friends The time is impidly approaching when the convention will assemble, the squabble commence, and victory or defeat rest upon the Fairfield banner It will be rare sport for the lookers on
